

1936 CHRYSLER

1936
Jaguar

The Robert von Khrum family proudly display the various trophies they won during the two day invitational VMCCA rally held in Park City. The group is standing by the 1937 Plymouth which won the first place trophy for the late production cars from 1935 to 1942.

In the Special Interest category to 1957, Pat won first place for her 1954 Packard.

In the "Classic" car competition Sam Kichas's 1930 Packard roadster won first place with George O'Connor of Ogden winning second place with his 1926 Pierce Arrow. The third place spot went to Frank Nelson of Salt Lake City with his 1948 Lincoln Continental.

The competition for the two day events was arranged by Ed. M. Curry, president of the Utah Chapter VMCCA; David C. Godfrey of Midvale, vice president of the club; Pat von Khrum secretary of the group, and Dick Paswater, the Utah club's treasurer. P.A. Rec. 11 Sep 1969